HALO News 6

HULLO EVERYONE.

Hull, the City of Culture 2017, and host to two HALO orienteering events this week. Add in the two at Beverley at the weekend and now it really is London 0 - Hull 4.

East Park was last Saturday. Noddle Hill, is this Thursday, and Beverley Westwood has events on Saturday and Sunday. The newsletter next week promises to be a bumper results edition. In the meantime.....

1 - EAST PARK HULL.

Last Saturday saw a HALO league event take place at East Park. Many club regulars were there, both competing and organising. However the day belonged to two people, Luke Snell and Danny Chan, who made the event their own. Luke (M14) completed all four courses available, winning two and coming second in two. He ran a total of almost 10km straight line distance and has been orienteering for less than a year. He was only beaten by Danny, who has been orienteering for just a few months. Danny won the orange and technical courses, a very impressive result. Well done to both of you.

2 - NODDLE HILL THURSDAY NIGHT EVENT.

The final event in the HALO Night League is this Thursday (tomorrow). Noddle Hill is a new area for orienteering in NE Hull. It's the usual 45 minute score event, with starts from 6pm. Last week the Night League was at Brumby Hall Scunthorpe. Nineteen runners headed off into the dark, four bagged all twenty two controls within the time limit. Dean Field was the winner again, followed by Paul Murgatroyd, Jake Field and Neil Harvatt. Neil getting a run last week as this event was planned by Dave Jolly. The

As mentioned last week, some HALO members have been competing in the EBOR Night League. This series finished last Wednesday, with Brian Ward joint first in the MV class with 400 points. Amanda Ward was third in WV. Prizes were given to all class winners.

If you have any news, or are doing events that I've not spotted, please get in touch. I'll try to mention as many as possible.
