Poacher 2014 begins...

A fantastic start to the series last week at Hendale. Planner Peter Harris gave us some great orienteering, with seventy people turning up to run on the night.

A full report with all the results is on the HALO website, <http://www.halo-orienteering.org.uk>

Some events next month that you might want to consider entering.

Newark Urban <http://www.noc-uk.org>

Harrogate Urban <http://www.claro-orienteering.org.uk>

York Urban <http://www.eborienteers.org.uk>

AIRE Town & Country weekend <http://www.aire.org.uk>

Also the EBOR White Rose Weekend Website for 2014 is now live and taking bookings. <http://www.whiteroseweekend.org.uk>

EVENTS.....

Lincolnshire Poacher

Round two of the series this Wednesday is at Cottagers Dale. Please note a different approach to the woods

HALO PEOPLE....

Lawrence Cook. The eagle eyed amongst you will have noticed that Lawrence didn't appear on Mastermind last Friday. But he will be appearing this coming

REPORTS.....

Pry Rigg Helmsley

Only a few hardy souls attended the EBOR event last Sunday.

George Van Dam gave his Dad a close run on from the usual, we'll be using a track off the A18, halfway between Kirmington and Great Limber.

Alex Smith is the planner and you can buy him a pint at The Marrowbone & Cleaver in Kirmington afterwards.

On Thursday LOG continue their Spring Series at the Revesby Estate near Conningsby.

This weekend it is of course The JK. Goodluck to all HALO runners. Hope you have a great time.

Sunday sees an EBOR Easter Bunny score event at Olde Earswick near York.

Friday in the semi-finals. There is no truth in the rumour that he had to postpone his appearance after too much celebrating of his inaugural Poacher win last week.

Peter Harris attended the LOG Summer Series event last Thursday at Stoke Rochford. Finishing in 6th place on the technical course, he wasn't able to repeat his podium performance of the week before.

It might be interesting to keep an eye on those who do back to back mid-week events. Will fitness and times improve, or will tiredness take over?

the green course. Paul was 6th with George six seconds behind in 7th. Emma Van Dam won the yellow course, her second consecutive win at this distance. John Butler and John Chaney finished 6th & 17th on the short green. Whilst Sue Chaney was 15th on the light green.

Poacher Post Script.....

Anyone with a Garmin or similar sports watch, why not keep a running total of Poacher miles. Lets see how far we run over the next twelve weeks?
