

The Lincolnshire Poacher.....

Tomorrow night we're at Healing Manor for the final Poacher of 2017. Brian Slater is planner and mapmaker, starts are from 6pm, with presentations after the event.

Thanks to Andrew Houlden for planning last weeks' event. What a nail biter that was. Holly beat Jonathan by 1 second over 4.5km to win on the medium course. His consolation was securing the Junior title. Liam won the long, but not yet the series title. Imogen won the short, but lost the title to Hannah. Pete Shew won the battle of the M70s, Neil won the Vets title and Yasmin and Megan secured the Ladies trophies.

More trophies are up for grabs in the Lincolnshire Urban League, with Women's and Men's titles for both the medium and long course - best three scores count. It all starts in Lincoln on Thursday night, full details are on the HALO and LOG websites.

20....35.....50.....

No not my course times from last week, but three anniversaries this year. Twenty years Poacher, thirty five years HALO and now Happy 50th to British Orienteering.
