

Lincolnshire Urban League.....

The LUL continued last Thursday at Sleaford. Whilst most of us were still drying our kit from the week before, six HALO runners made the journey.

David Jolly was 4th on the long, with Andrew Holden 13th. Pete Shew was 12th on the medium, followed by Jackie Edwards 13th, then Brian Slater and Mary Vickers.

The league continues this Wednesday in Caistor, starts from 6pm.

HALO League.....

After nine months of competition, the 2016/17 HALO League has finished.

Congratulations to Helena Crutchley, Overall Champion. This is especially well earned as Helena had to do 4 urban events in order to get in enough counters, and she doesn't do urbans as a rule. (although I think she's coming round to liking them)

Helen Chan is Senior Champion, Dean Field, Master's Champ, Pete Shew took the Super Vets title and George Van Dam the Junior. Well done to all.

You can see final positions on the HALO website, just click the 'league' button.

Fat Rascall Weekend.....

Brian Slater continues to bask in being able to compete in, rather than organise events. He ran both days at Bradford, as did Ken Hutson, Brian and Amanda Ward, and Mary Carrick. (more later)

The Sunday urban used the 'new' colour coding for such events. It's exactly the same as the cross country system we already use, and is designed to simplify things.

You can check out how the results now look on the AIRE website.
