National News.....

I think I've mentioned before UK land use and that only 6% of the country is built on. Green urban areas are 3%, farmland 57% and natural areas 35% nationally.

Well last week new research showed the regional variations, East Riding (exc Hull) is 4% urban, 2% parks, 92% farmland and 2% natural, whilst North Lincs is 9% urban, 2% parks, 84% farmland and 4% natural. Hull, should you be interested, is 72% urban, 21% park and 7% farmland.
