

HALO Night League.....

The HALO Night League continues tonight at the Humber Bridge Country Park. Starts are from 6pm, or earlier, enter via the Hessele foreshore car park. Thanks to Wayne Byrne and Brian Slater for last week's event at Weelsby Woods. Only a few hardy souls ventured out in the snow, the dark and the cold. So well done to David Jolly, Dave Offler, Paul Simmons, Harriet Gilman, Mary Vickers, James Drewery, Tracey Blackburn and Patricia Simmons.

Postcard from Jackie Edwards in Edinburgh.....

For those that braved the journey North of the border for the Edinburgh University Orienteering Big Weekend, a pair of ice skates were the preferred choice of footwear.

Friday Night saw 'Fight The Night' sprint races around the Kings University site, with black ice making for treacherous conditions, times were slow, but our only faller was Pete Harris indoors! Neil was 77th on the long course, with Ken 112th. On the short Pete was 49th, Jackie 93rd and Brian Slater 94th.

On Saturday the icy conditions were no better and the event was void. You could do the course at your own risk, but no times would be recorded. All the HALO runners gave it a go, but were reliant on judges scores for technical ability and artistic interpretation. Needless to say Torvill and Dean won, with Pete and Ken both becoming MSPs.

Sunday saw slightly better conditions, although the hardest part was getting to the start, and then the snow started. Neil finished 27th on the blue, Pete 54th green, whilst Jackie and Brian were 17th and 19th on the short green. Giving her a small victory over the weekend. Despite the conditions we had a great time, with plenty of opportunities to get warm in welcoming pubs.

Word of the week.....Jeelit

Scottish for freezing cold.
