

HALO Night League.....

The HALO Night League continues tonight at the Cleethorpes Country Park. Starts are from 6pm in the main car park, Brian Slater is officiating. Thanks to Neil Harvatt for last week's event at the Humber Bridge Country Park. Paul Simmons secured his second win of the series and the outright lead in the league.

Going Dutch.....

Some excellent news, Emma Van Dam has been selected to represent England at the Interland orienteering event in the Netherlands in March. Well done Emma.

Bit of a bloodbath at Brayton Barff.....

The final YHOA night league event, organised by EBOR, was last Saturday. Out of six HALO starters only two finished. A special well done to Joe Field who had already secured the junior men's title. Other HALO members are definitely up for podium positions, but the final league table has not yet been published.

As one door closes.....

The YHOA Night League concluded on Saturday at Brayton Barff, but the YHOA Superleague started the next day at Storthes Hall. The Yorkshire and Humberside Orienteering Association run three leagues throughout the year. The Superleague has nine events from January to December. The Night League has six events from October to January and the Urban League has thirteen events from April to October. You can see all the details on the YHOA website, under competitions.

EPOC Storthes Hall.....

EPOC turned their YHOA Superleague event into a memorial one for Alister Tinto, who unfortunately died last year. Alister was a big part of orienteering in Yorkshire and the event was a fitting tribute.

Top HALO finishers on each course were, George Van Dam 13th black, Dean Field 9th blue, Brian Slater 42nd green, Helena Crutchly 1st short green and Elspeth Jolly 7th light green.

Trying to hack it.....

Thanks to Pete Shew for teaching some HALO members how to use the registration/download software. We all left the session with much more appreciation for those who sit opposite us at an event doing the technical stuff!

Word of the week.....Error 404
