

Poacher 2018.....

The Lincolnshire Poacher resumes tomorrow night at Willingham Woods with starts from 6pm or earlier. Isoldt Harris is in the planners' chair. A big thank you to David and Elspeth Jolly for last week's event at Swallow Vale. Elspeth was very kind to us on the medium course, taking us up the hillside in a gradual gradient. If it wasn't for the lovely Beech woodland you wouldn't have known it was Swallow Vale. Course times were nearly all in the 30 to 60 minute time frame (MC see me later...) An excellent start to the new Poacher season.

PH PB 60.....

Well done to Pete Harris, who this week sets a new personal best of 60. In an exclusive interview with the News, HALO Club Chairman Pete said, "this has been a long time coming, I set a pb of 59 about this time last year, so to better that is fantastic..."

Results.....

EBOR held a local event last Saturday at Easingwold, with four different courses to choose from. On the short urban Brian Ward was 1st, with Emma Van Dam 7th, Paul Simmons 16th, Dorothy Smith 26th and Patricia Simmons 29th. Emma Chan helped Mike Smith to 10th place on the park course.

Sunday saw the EPOC Brighthouse Urban. Brian Ward was 1st on the blue, Ken Hutson 13th green, John Butler 11th short green and Mary Carrick 15th.

Thirsk Urban.....

The final details for next Saturday's event are now on the HALO website. Ken Hutson is organising with Neil Harvatt planning, hopefully see lots of you there...
