

Poacher 2018.....

The Lincolnshire Poacher concludes for another year at Normanby Hall tomorrow night. Megan Smith is planning, with starts from 6pm. The park now closes at 8pm, so prompt finishing and help clearing up would be appreciated.

The prize giving will either be in the park or the Sheffield Arms in Burton upon Stather.

Thanks to Helena for last week's event in Baysgarth Park. Well done to the winners, David, Elspeth and Harry. David and Elspeth getting their first wins of this series.

Sun, Sea and Spires.....

Next weekend sees the HALO/LOG urban orienteering extravaganza.

The Cleethorpes Sprints commence with a mass start at 11.30am, whilst the Louth urban begins at 4.00pm, the maze should be available from 3.00pm

At Skegness on Sunday the starts are from 10.00am.

Final details are now posted on the HALO website.

Results Service.....

Some tough orienteering last weekend by all accounts.

The EBOR Relays saw 6 HALO starters, but only 3 finishers, well done to George, Paul and Helena. On Sunday at the White Horse event Mary Carrick took 2 hours for 2.5km. Paul Simmons fared better doing 2.1km in 58 minutes and winning the very short green, Patricia was 3rd on the light green, completing 2km in 56minutes.

At Stanton Moor the DVO event saw lots of dnfs, but Dean managed 7th on the blue and John Butler was 4th on the short green.

Meanwhile at the Birmingham Uni Sprints, Charlotte Ward won the women's senior and Brian Ward was 3rd men's senior vet.

The YHOA Superleague tables have now been updated to show recent results.
