

HALO Pub League.....

The HALO Pub League continued in Broughton last week. Thanks to Ollie for planning and to Isoldt and Brian for setting up. Eight runners managed to collect all 20 controls, with Philip Johnston-Davis the quickest. Gerry Symes from AIRE taking the handicap win.

You can read Brian Slater's (r)ace report on the HALO website, along with the league standings thus far. With four events to go, there's still time to get involved.

Tonight we're at The Lion & Key, High Street, Hull Old Town, with Ken doing the planning. Starts are from 6pm to 7pm, food orders up until 8pm.

HALO Parkrun.....

The HALO Parkrun Challenge took place last Saturday at the Humber Bridge Country Park. Mike Byron was first back, closely followed by David Jolly. But it was the Sheffield Sprint Champion, Jackie Edwards who took the title.

Another title confirmed is the Urban Club Championship, which was won by Brian Hostad at the recent SYO event. Well done to Brian & Jackie, trophies for these and other club champs will be handed out at the awards dinner in November.

Thin Blue Line.....

A bit of bother last weekend as two events were affected by rule breaches.
At the UKUL Liverpool urban, results are still pending as runners had been seen crossing an uncrossable boundary.
In Switzerland, the Junior European Champs saw the 'winners' running through an Out Of Bounds area into the finish.

Pub League tonight...

hi-viz and headtorches.
