

Weekend Results.....

Another big turnout. This time for SYO at Hugset, where 350+ runners took part.

Eleven HALO runners ran, with top finishers, Jake Field 41st brown, Mike Smith 19th green, John Butler 14th short green and Patrica Simmons 10th orange.

At the East Park Hull Parkrun on Saturday, a record 857 runners ran in memory of their founder Gill Tremere, who unfortunately passed away last month.

Military Manooovers.....

The Military League North (MLN) held an orienteering event on Beverley Westwood last week, luckily the cows aren't out yet.

The podium bugle bugled for Squadron Leader (Rtd) Neil Harvatt 1st blue, and Flying Officer Dean Field 3rd.

Sergeant Paul Simmons was 3rd light green infantry.

A total of 24 HALO runners took part, including Flight Attendant Mary Carrick, who has a tale to tell regarding control number 155. Full results here.

HALO News.....

Dates and venues for both the Spring Pub League and the Lincolnshire Poacher 2019 are now on the HALO website. As well as confirmation that our Compass Sport Trophy qualifier is on the 27th March at Sherwood Pines.

So if you've not yet renewed your HALO membership, now is a good time.

Postcard from Switzerland.....

The News last week went to Switzerland to check out a theory.

This involved buying the biggest Toblerone possible, then visiting the Eiger.

We discovered that the mountain is why a Toblerone is triangular, and in the logo is a rampant bear from the coat of arms for Bern, where the chocolate is made.
