

Poacher Roundup.....

The third event took place at Twigmoor last Wednesday, the same night that saw Manchester City go back to the top of the football Premiership.

Twigmoor is always a difficult fixture in any season. As our most technical area, the venue and atmosphere can intimidate some players, others rise to the occasion and score well, so well done to Liam, Yasmin and Georgia.

Unfortunately Helena was taken out by a sliding tackle, and a few red cards were handed out for mispunches.

Thanks to Pete Harris for planning, in the week he just missed out on winning his first ever England cap, and to Pete Shew for the late battery substitution.

You can read a full match report online.

This Wednesday we are at Hendale with Paul Simmons planning.

Post race discussion at the Marrow Bone & Cleaver in Kirmington.

Poacher Archives.....

Chatting with Mike Smith about the first Poacher series led him to digging out copies of the HALO News from 1997 for me.....

So my original query was "How many of the original Poacher runners still take part in the series?" This is what I've managed to come up with;

Pete Kullich, Mike & Dorothy Smith, Pete & Isoldt Harris, Brian Slater, John Butler, Dave Offer and John Fulwood, although John & Dave haven't run in 2019 yet.....

HALO Mausoleum Event.....

Our Regional event took place last Sunday at Great Limber.

Thanks to Planner Isoldt, Organiser Brian and Controller Wayne, and all the other HALO helpers.

170 runners took part, including nearly 50 SYO juniors for the Yvette Baker qualifier. Brian's report is online.

JK Journal.....

Those missing overall results have arrived.

Congratulations to John Butler, first M75s, and top of his league.

Others were, Wayne 20th M35, Elspeth 26th W14A, and Brian 5 54th M70L.

Individual results were, David Jolly had a 9th day1 and Flora a 2nd on day 2 .
