HALO News

Last week seventeen hardy orienteers braved Beverley Westwood in the dark, looking for controls. This was a half term night score event organised by Neil and was a taster session for the Night Score league. This starts in earnest on Thursday 14th November at Normanby Hall South at 6pm. Thomas Honniball came first at Beverley Westwood, finding sixteen controls.

Thomas also won on Saturday 2nd November, whilst competing at Washingborough near Lincoln. This was LOG's first event of their Saturday morning Winter Series.

Sunday 3rd November saw an SYO event at Bowden Housteads near Sheffield. This was also the first event in the 2013/14 HALO League www.halo-orienteeing.org.uk/page/_fixtures The HALO League consists of seventeen events in the YHOA Region. of which you need to compete in at least eight, over the next season. A scoring system similar to the BOF Rankings is used to determine a winner by next July.

The first people to register some scores were, Brian Hostead, Helena Crutchly, John Button and Mary Carrick. However HALO regulars the Fields were also there. Joe did very well to finish second on the light green, and his Dad won the green.

Meanwhile six members of HALO were running around Rome, competing in three events of urban orienteering. ROME 2013 attracted 134 Brits in a total entry of nearly a thousand runners. Combined results for the three days put Helen Smith 8th in W35 and Neil Harvatt 12th in M55. We hope you all enjoyed your trip.

This weekend sees orienteering on Saturday (9/11/13) at Primrose Warren, as part of the HALO Saturday League. Starts are from 1pm and cost £3 per adult and £1.50 per junior. HALO regulars Mike and Dorothy Smith are

Last weekend saw Brian Hostead compete in two events. Running at both Lincoln and Sheffield. We already know that Helen, Danny, Neil, Brian, Peter & Isoldt competed in back to back events in Rome. But maybe we should start a league to see who actually does the most events?

Ken Hutson, who edits the paper version of HALO news, asked if I could remind people that he would still like to receive articles for publication. Ken hopes to have a magazine out in December.

Disclaimer Again apologies for any errors or omissions. It's still early days, but thanks for the initial positive feedback. We have sent this email to all HALO members currently
