HALO News 3

Busy, busy last week. Neil organised two events for HALO. The first was the Night League Score Event at Normanby Hall. Eighteen runners donned their headtorches and bramble bashers to tackle the 45 minute score event. Paul Murgatroyd from LOG won, collecting all 20 controls in the quickest time. Next in line were Jake and Dean Field, with the first placed HALO runner being Pete Shew in fourth place. Full results and report are on the website.

Next it was onto Beverley Westwood for the Saturday League Event. Neil was again in charge, with a larger turn out than usual, helped by family groups entering multiple courses. It's really good to see so many families getting involved. However for Alex Smith it was reminiscent of the recent night event at Beverley Westwood. Collecting controls in "The Pit" in the dark, he came face to face with one of those Westwood Cows again!

Sunday was the The EBOR Peasholm Park event in Scarborough. I spotted eight HALO runners in the results, Brian H, Ken, Helen, Danny, Helena, Mary, Paul and Patricia. Full results are on the EBOR website www.eborienteers.org.uk Whilst there have a look at Routegadget too. The area looks very intricate, with some tricky courses.

Looking ahead, there's round two of the Night League this Thursday, at The Humber Bridge Country Park. Please email Neil to reserve a map if you didn't attend last week. Saturday sees a HALO event at Cleethorpes Country Park (there's a theme developing here) Starts are from 1pm with courses from white to

HALO People

Thanks to those who entered the "name the bear" competition. I was expecting maybe a Primrose (Warren) or Beverley (Westwood), but the winner was Helen Smith with "Humbear".

Runners up were Luke with "HALO Harry" and Dom with "OLAH" (Strictly Orienteering!)

Back to my quest to find the most active orienteer. Neil as we already know probably attends the most events. But it was Brian Hostad and Paul Simmons, who last weekend did two events. Brian was at Lincoln on Saturday and Scarborough Sunday. Paul was at Beverley and Scarborough, but also did the night score on Thursday. Well done guys.

Back next week.

On Sunday, CLARO, are organising an event at Brimham Rocks near Pately Bridge. <http://www.claro-orienteering.org> This is a regional event with courses from white to black. But having looked at the final details non of the courses are very long.

LEI have a weekend of Town & Country, with events around Ashby de la Zouch. Further details can be found at <http://www.leioc.org.uk>

Don't forget to keep checking our own website for further information www.halo-orienteering.org.uk
