HALO News 7

Results.....Results.....Results...

As promised a results special. All the details are on the HALO website, so this is an edited highlights version!

NODDLE HILL THURSDAY NIGHT EVENT.

The final event in the HALO Night League was at Noddle Hill last Thursday. Eleven runners braved the storms and the brambles, with Joe Field coming out on top. Joe beat some "big names", including his brother and Dad. A great effort Joe.

The Night League has now concluded. Twenty eight people entered at least one event, with eleven, doing three or more events. The top three places were, 1st Dean Field, 2nd Jake Field and 3rd Pete Shew. Well done to you all.

BEVERLEY WESTWOOD SATURDAY NIGHT EVENT.

Many of those at Noddle Hill were back at The Westwood for the Saturday night event, making a total of forty two entrants. With fresh batteries and fresh heart, Valter Sohler won the medium course. followed by Helen Smith, then Yasmin Field and Danny Chan. (These four also finished within a minute of each other the next day) On the long course, Zach Field won in a convincing manner, seven minutes clear of twenty four other runners. Top HALO runner on the long was Dan Bibbington, in eighteenth place. Full results at www.halo-orienteing.org.uk/page/ results2

BEVERLEY WESTWOOD SUNDAY MORNING EVENT.

Day two on The Westwood, and eighteen or so runners from HALO made up a quarter of the starters. Flora, Elspeth & Marsaili Jolly all won

HALO People

As the year draws to a close, I thought it might be an idea to ask for your favourite orienteering moment of 2013? Whether it's your first win in thirty years, or some other memorable moment. Maybe there's something you're looking forward to in 2014?

If you can email them to me, I'll put as many as I can in a Christmas Newsletter.

sprint to the finish on the orange course) Dad, Dave Jolly finished 6th on the blue. Whilst Jake & Dean Field had their own little battle, finishing 2nd and 3rd. Also on the blue were Brian Hostad and Pete Harris, both running sub nine minute kms.

The light green saw three HALO runners, Dorothy Smith, who finished 5th, Isoldt Harris who was 8th and Dom Simmonds, who was lying 4th before he lost his dibber. He managed to find it, but it cost him thirty minutes. (as opposed to thirty pounds!)

The green course was the most popular, with twenty six entries and eight HALO runners. Paul Van Dam and Helena Crutchley were closely matched in 2nd and 3rd places. Helen Smith finished 7th, ahead of Yasmin, Danny and Valter. Pete Shew and Mike Smith followed on, then Mary C and myself. No room on here for my excuses though!

Thanks to all those who put on the events last week. Thanks also to Pete Shew, who came to help me look for Dom's dibber. Pete being an expert, having lost and found his own dibber the night before!
