HALO News 6-14

Winter Olympics Special.

It seems not many of us were out orienteering on Sunday. Was it the weather, or were we all watching Jenny Jones (picture right) winning her Bronze medal at Sochi 2014?

Having said that, there are still some event reports to do.

Thursday night saw the LOG score event at Hartsholme Park. Five HALO members made the journey, with Peter Harris finishing highest in 6th place, followed by Neil Harvatt in 7th and Brian Hostad in 8th. Alex Smith was 16th and Brian Slater 18th. In what were soggy, as opposed to sochi conditions, only Brian Hostad managed to avoid time penalties amongst our runners.

Saturday witnessed a lot of new faces at the East Park HALO event. Neil said he had put out the usual pre-event notices, but was surprised at the number of entrants, many just wandering over to see what was happening. In total 58 courses were completed, many running more than once. Jaydn Lockyer won the yellow, Luke Snell won the orange course and Sam Taylor won the technical.

Also on Saturday EBOR held an urban event at Scarborough. Brian & Amanda Ward plus Paul & Patricia Simmons made the journey to the east coast. Brian won both the "Stars" and "Super Stars" courses, holding off Sam Wood from York Uni each time. Paul was 17th on the "Super Stars" and Amanda was 22nd. Patricia finished 21st on the "Improvers" course. Peter Harris went to the NOC Clifton College

The big orienteering event of the weekend, the SYO Wharnclyffe Woods Super League, wasn't as far as HALO was concerned. Despite six pre-entries by members, I only spotted Mary Carrick and the Field Family in the results. Mary getting an extra mention for running at both East Park and Wharnclyffe last weekend.

Lastly, GOODLUCK to all HALO runners on Sunday. May your map reading be faultless and your climb be painless.

forget to punch !
