Fern Britton.....

Sunday saw NOC host an event at Thoresby North, where the head high bracken made another appearance. I liked one control site, classed as a knoll, but the kite had to be six feet in the air so you could see it.

Well done to Helena Crutchley finishing second on the short green and to Yasmin and Joe Field finishing third and fourth on the green. Other HALO runners attended, but we don't like to hog the limelight, the results will be somewhere out there on the internet.

Last Saturday HALO held a very successful and well attended event at East Park Hull. Thanks go to Mark Bough, making his planning debut and to Neil Harvatt for organising. Neil has put a report on the website, top HALO finisher on the orange and technical courses was Stuart Whittingham, coming back from a recent injury.

Next Weekend.....

If you feel you need to start scoring some points in any of the various leagues, next weekend is your chance.

Both AIRE and CLOK have back to back events, CLOK winning out with probably the most scenic venues of Robin Hoods Bay and Goatland.

Meanwhile DVO have an Urban event at Matlock. Estimated climb on the courses varies from 70m to 270m, enjoy.....

HALO League.....

The next event in the HALO League 2015/16 is this Sunday at Middleton Park Leeds.

Poacher Pin-Ups.....

Pete Harris is looking to produce a 2016 HALO Calendar using the Poacher Maps. If you would like one, please contact Pete, further details are on the HALO website.
