"Pub League Lock In....."

The HALO Pub League started last week at the Fair Maid Cottingham, with a lock in.
In this case it was a control locked in a car park, thus ensuring that Mary Carrick again managed to stop anyone collecting all twenty controls. The best score on the night was David Jolly, collecting 18 controls. Time penalties for over half the field mixed up the scores, then add in the handicap system and Neil Harvatt came out on top.
Tonight we're at the Queen's Head, Kirton in Lindsey, with starts from 6.00pm. Don't forget it will be dark by 7.30pm.

HALO AGM.....

The club AGM took place at East Park Hull last Saturday. The three main officers (Neil, Paul & John) were all voted back in for another year, with committee positions to be finalised at the meeting next week. John Butler gave a vote of thanks to Neil, the other committee members and to auditor Kate Brown, for all their hard work over the last year.

East Park Hull.....

The pre-AGM event was noteworthy for Emma Chan securing her first ever win on the white, whilst Mum, Helen won the orange course. David Jolly won the technical course and the park fountains had been turned blue, in honour of HALO no doubt.
