

The Lincolnshire Poacher.....

The Poacher series began last Wednesday evening at Willingham Woods. Thanks to Pete Harris for planning some excellent courses. A very pleasant evening was had, with 70 runners taking part.

'Petes' Poacher Picks' all performed well, but those who were on holiday or at the JK last week, may make an appearance this week.

Tomorrow night we are at Mausoleum Woods with Paul Simmons planning, but where will he have put the finish.....?

Starts are from 6pm or earlier. Parking in Great Limber village, post race meet Marrowbone & Cleaver. You can check out all the details on the HALO website.

JK Results Roundup.....

I managed to spot a few HALO people in the JK results, but probably not all of you.

Top result was Elspeth Jolly 1st W12B overall, with sister Flora second W12B.

Well done ladies.

Charlotte Ward was 5th in the women's elite sprint, George Van Dam was 31st in the sprint and 31st overall M16A. Emma Van Dam was 29th in the sprint, but 23rd overall W14. David Jolly was 12th M40 sprint and Wayne Byrne 13th M35 sprint.

Wayne was also 19th overall M35, whilst Andrew Houlden was 20th M45 overall.

Safety Course for Planners.....

Ken Hutson is running another safety course for event organisers. It's to be held at Wootton Village Hall on Thursday 27th April at 7pm.

Please reply to Ken's email if you would like to attend.

HALO Anniversary

Details of the HALO 35th Anniversary event are now on the website.

The date for your diary is August 12th, and the venue, Tealby.

Comedy Cow at the JK.....

Knowing our penchant for Beverley Bovines, the JK Relay organisers put one at the spectator control on Monday. In true Westwood style it fell over, but was soon righted.
