

The Lincolnshire Poacher.....

The Poacher series continued last Wednesday evening at Mausoleum Woods. Thanks to Paul Simmons for planning some excellent courses, and to the Marrowbone & Cleaver for serving some. Unfortunately though our organisers missed out, and despite a mad dash around Lincolnshire for pub grub, they found all the Chefs had gone home. Well done to Liam, Holly & Imogen, all winning comfortably, despite, or maybe because of the uphill run to the finish. Tomorrow night we are at Hendale Woods with David Jolly and family doing the planning. Starts are from 6pm or earlier. Parking at Grasby Bottom Crossroads. You can check out all the details on the HALO website.

Safety Course for Planners.....

Your last call to attend a safety course for event organisers. It's to be held this Thursday at Wootton Village Hall. Please email Ken Hutson if you would like to attend.

HALO Anniversary

Details of the HALO 35th Anniversary event are now on the website. There will be a 3 hour score event and a one hour score event running at the same time, controls will be worth different points. It all takes place on Saturday the 12th August at Tealby.

To have and to hold.....

Congratulation to Megan and Oliver, who got married on the 13th April. Their honeymoon included competing at the Poacher event last week, with Megan finishing in second place on the medium course. Thanks to Mike Smith for the photo, plus control.
