

The Lincolnshire Poacher.....

The first of the Poacher Sprints took place last Wednesday at the old RAF Binbrook, where it was no longer Bomber Harris, but Pete Harris planning the flight paths.

The former airbase saw 'lightning' quick Liam, win the long course and remain top gun.

On the medium Holly was flying, and takes the series trophy. Well done Holly.

On the short course, Hannah soared to take the win.

Tomorrow night we are at former RAF Hemswell, with Andrew Houlden as planner.

Rendezvous at 18.00 hours, full details are on the HALO website.

New HALO MPs.....

We've had a few mis-punches at big events over the years, but I think Mary Carrick is our first Euro MP. She had a 'blob' in Bristol at the Euro City race last weekend, meanwhile Pete Shew became the latest MP of Dewsbury.

The Van Dam family did well at the EPOC event, with George 1st light green and Emma 2nd. Marie was 1st yellow and Paul 7th brown. Brian Ward was 2nd blue, whilst Helena Crutchley and Helen Chan were 14th and 15th (4th & 5th female runners)

Lawrence Cook was 9th black with Ollie Smith 10th. Lots of other HALO runners, full results on the respective websites.
