

Poacher 2018.....

The Lincolnshire Poacher continues tomorrow night at Kingsway Gardens Scunthorpe. Oliver Smith is in charge of planting the controls, so I hope he doesn't forget his dibber. There are three 2km courses. The short course do one, the medium do two and the long do all three.

Thanks to Mike and Dorothy Smith for last week's world class event at Central Park. Well done also to Neil, Brian, Pete, Isoldt, and Dave who had a very long World Orienteering day, getting 600 youngsters round the school's course in the adjoining Brumby fields.

Back to Back.....

Two Yorkshire urban events last weekend and two lots of results from Knaresborough and York. Congratulations to Charlotte Ward who won the women's open on both days and Brian Ward who had a 1st and a 2nd MSV. George had a 7th MO at Knaresborough, whilst JB was 4th MHV at York and MC was 13th WUV. Well done to those who ran both days, and also to those who managed just the one...

Meanwhile Helena 'book ended' her trip to Scotland with an 11th place in the Scottish Champs W55, which was held last Saturday near Nairn, north east of Inverness.

Breaking News....

The YBT Juniors who finished second to SYO the other week will have an automatic pass to the final, since SYO were last year's winners, good luck to all...

Sea Sand and Steers.....

The Cleethorpes/Louth orienteering day on June 23rd just got more interesting. There is now to be a maze at the Louth assembly area, using the cattle market pens. Entries are open on Fabian4, and helper discounts are available from Pete Harris.
