

HALO Pub League.....

The final event of the autumn series was held in Cleethorpes last week.

Thanks to Brian Slater for planning a 70s, 80s and 90s score competition.

David Jolly was quickest, followed by Brian, Dean, Pete, Marcus and Dom, all collecting 21 controls within time. Pete Harris took the handicap win on the night, slightly narrowing the gap to league winner after seven events, Brian Ward.

Congratulations to Brian.

The evening wasn't without incident, no risk assessment could have predicted Mary Carrick falling into the open ditch. Waterproof maps didn't help this time...

HALO Weekend Roundup.....

Dean and Rosie Field went with Zac to the NOC Silvehill event, Dean was 19th blue, Rosie 28th green and Zac 9th brown.

Paul and Patricia Simmons went to Robin Hoods Bay with CLOK. Paul was 6th on the open course with Pat 9th.

MDOC hosted a EuroCity event with Saturday Sprints and a Sunday long urban. Neil was 6th in the sprint and 11th MSV on Sunday. Pete Harris was 15th sprint and 29th MSV, Amanda Ward 10th sprint and 13th WSV, Ken Hutson was 21st sprint but had a mispunch on Sunday, and Mary Carrick was 18th WUV on Sunday.

HALO Awards Dinner.....

There's still time to book your place at the awards dinner on Friday November 16th.

Menu choices are on the website, please notify Pete Harris of your attendance and food requirements. Please also return any trophies from last year.

Parkrun.....

David Jolly and Karen Cook took part in the first Market Rasen Parkrun at the weekend. Meanwhile Parkrunners from Billericay went to the Barry Island Parkrun when their event was cancelled, in true Gavin & Stacey style.
