

Le Poacher.....

Last week saw us running at Willingham Woods on World Orienteering Day.

Thanks to the Market Rasen posse for planning and setting the three courses.

Lawrence was originally planning, but David stepped in as Lawrence had work commitments. Thanks also to Ann, Karen and kids who mucked in as well.

On the long long course Liam won again, whilst Hannah took the medium long and Mary V the long short. You can read Pete's full report online.

This Wednesday we are at Swallow Vale with Geoff Holmes planning.

Eurovision.....

All eyes are on Europe at the moment, with singing competitions, football, elections...and orienteering.

Pete Harris and Pete Shew certainly set the streets of Porto alight in the first EuroCity Race of the year.

Both performed well over the three days, finishing in the top half each time. Pete (Podium) Harris grabbed a 3rd place in the 'night' race and sounded the podium klaxon for the UK.

Meanwhile Brian Ward crossed the border into Norfolk to nick a 1st place in the King's Lynn urban last Sunday.
